

ITALIAN LANGUAGE SERVICES provides a series of courses that can take students from beginners' level through to GCSE and A level standard. These examinations can be taken if students wish to do so. Individual private lessons are available at all levels, these can be arranged in small groups if required. There are also one day Italian Language Workshops in Yeovil and special classes for Holiday Italian.

Italian Language Services has many years experience in designing and running courses at all levels. Christine Jewels is an enthusiastic teacher who gives individual attention to the needs and interests of all her students. She has a passion for the language and culture of Italy that influences everything she does. The courses are carefully designed and provide very high quality teaching to give a truly enjoyable learning experience.

Christine Jewels has been teaching Italian in Somerset and Dorset for twenty one years. She is a teacher of both adults and children having worked at Millfield School, Sherborne Girls and Sherborne School.

As well as teaching, Christine is an experienced translator. She gained a qualification in commercial Italian whilst working in the aerospace industry.

Since then she has gained two degrees in Italian from the University of Bristol, an Honours Degree in Italian and History of Art in 1998 and a Master's Degree in 20th century Italian Cultural Studies.

Christine has taught Italian from absolute beginners to A level. She has also coached undergraduates for examination re-sits. Her particular interests include 20th century Italian culture and the history of Italian art.
